Title XI Coordinator Dr. Erin Logan explains that this past year she has been reviewing policies and looking for ways to enhance and better the Title IX office. She is looking into the panel makeup and wants students to sit in on interviews of employees. She is looking forward to coffee talks in the Title IX official.

Senator Bostic asked how we can hold the office accountable.

Dr. Logan explained to follow up and call her out.

A student asked how the students will be determined to sit in on interviews.

Dr. Logan said she isn't sure yet, she is looking to see what other campuses are doing.

Senator Smith asked if Title IX statistics will be posted at the end of the year and wanted more visibility from the office.

Dr. Logan explained that her office is being moved, they will table and have an open house when they have relocated.

Senator Addai explained that they believe that it should be upperclassmen to sit in on the interviews. Addai encouraged that Title IX comes to Forge.

Dr. Logan said they are already on the agenda for forge.

Senator Davis explained that during last summer's forge session all we watched was a 2 minute youtube video.

Senator Howry asked how Dr. Logan plays a role in the large scale cases.

Dr. Logan said that she is never the decision maker in these cases. She does not make suspensions or recommendations.

Senator Williams asked if during forgo will allow her articulate exactly what sexual misconduct is.

Student Body Vice-President Delauren Diaz read the veto of CB21-204 from Student Body President De Shannon.
