VI. Student Concerns

(Open forum for any student to address concerns to the UCO Student Congress)

Senator Grim explained that Campus Development tabled and found student concerns—meal plan mandate, lack of meal trade options, more options in Ayers, housing needs more parking, more healthy food options, more parking, wifi changes and improvements. On a point of information, she said they worked on the wifi this weekend. “Forget” network and join again.

On a point of information, Senator Sheffield said that every year UCO changes the meal trade options but they change it back at the beginning of each semester. Specifically, the meals in the market.

Senator Perez talked about how students are upset about graduation fees.

Senator Grim explained that there were a few student concerns with paid parking and how tuition has been raised.

Senator Hammond explained that parking lot 4 by the quad should be multi-permit.

Senator Davis explained that the IMMY Labs parking lot should be accessible to students.

Senator Grim said that dining staff in the Nigh have been rude to students.

Senator Williams explained that the ODI office has been taken over by other offices on campus. She encourages UCOSA to take action. Students are still allowed to go in there. They aren't entirely sure what this change is going to look like.

Advisor Cole Stanley explained that the ODI isn't under student affairs but is being moved to be under the division of people and culture.

A student said that UCO is unorganized in regards to COVID. The COVID meal deliveries are never on time.

Senator Byfield elaborated by saying that ordering meals on the app was difficult.

A student concern was to add more hammocking places on campus.
