- WHEREAS, UCOSA exists to express the views and carry out the will of the students of the University of Central Oklahoma, and
- WHEREAS, The UCO Student Association Congress has debated and declared a position in regard to firearms on campus annually, and
- WHEREAS, UCO President Patti Neuhold-Ravikumar does have the ability to allow licensed students, faculty, or staff to carry a concealed firearm under specific circumstances, should the need arise, and
- WHEREAS, A 2018 survey of the UCO student body showed that 79.8% of students already felt safe on campus, and only 34.9% of students stated that bringing guns on campus would make them feel safer, and
- WHEREAS, A study by Hemenway et al. (2001) Published in the Journal of Injury Prevention found “By a margin of 5 to 1, Americans feel less safe rather than safer as more people in their community begin to carry guns. By margins of at least 9 to 1, Americans do not believe that regular citizens should be allowed to bring their guns into restaurants, college campuses, sports stadium, bars, hospitals or government buildings.”, and
- WHEREAS, A Literature Review by Hepburn et al. (2004) Published in the Journal of Aggression and Violent Behavior found that “Case-control studies, ecological time-series, and cross-sectional studies indicate that in homes, cities, states, and regions in the U.S., where there are more guns, both men and women are at a higher risk for homicide, particularly firearm homicide.”, and
- WHEREAS, Young adults between the age of 18-25 have the highest rate of suicidal thought (NIMH) and 90% of suicide attempts made with a firearm are fatal (Miller et al. 2004.), and
